

East Africa Famine Appeal – Giving Guide

South Sudan is the first nation in six years to declare a famine, but the UN have issued a stark warning that other countries face extreme food-shortages across East Africa. All We Can and the World Church Relationships Team of the Methodist Church in Britain are calling for support for an urgent appeal to respond to immediate needs in South Sudan and to help avert famine in other countries on the verge of disaster.

You can give to this emergency appeal now by one of the following methods.

Online -

Give directly online by visiting www.allwecan.org.uk/famine

By cheque -

Please make cheques payable to 'All We Can' and include in your accompanying correspondence that you wish your donation to be allocated to the East African Famine Appeal.

Please mail these donations to:

All We Can
25 Marylebone Road
London
NW1 5JR

Church collections -

Church collections should use All We Can gift aid envelopes, available to order by emailing info@allwecan.org.uk or calling 020 7467 5132.

After your collection, send it to All We Can at the address above including a cheque payable to 'All We Can' for the full amount and any completed Gift Aid envelopes.

Please note a presentation is available to download that you can use to present the appeal in your church. You can download this from www.allwecan.org.uk/famine

By text -

You can text 'EFAM17 £20' to 70070

To change the donation amount, simply replace the donation amount above with the amount you'd like to give.

All the money you donate goes to All We Can. You may be charged for your text message. Please refer to your network operator's standard rates. Over 18s only.

By phone -
